

Handle With Care: An Introduction to the Inductive Bible Study Method

Dr. Gregory T. K. Wong

Associate Professor of Old Testament, Evangel Seminary
Ph.D., University of Edinburgh
Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary

Goals of the Course

1. To raise Christian leaders who are equipped to stem the tide of biblical illiteracy.
2. To help you rediscover the joy and excitement of Bible study.
3. To develop you into a 'tree' Christian instead of a 'pipe' Christian.
4. To help you become method-conscious.

Requirements of the Course

1. Be punctual and try to attend all sessions. Each session builds on the previous session, so that if you miss too many sessions, it will be hard for you to keep up.
2. Try to do the weekly assignments. These will help you put into practice what you have learned and should take about an hour or so per week.
